

...taking literary excellence to new heights

I AM: LaQuarn Michaels

Written by Taj

Liberated. Strong. Talented. Powerful.

The most articulate way to sum up today's hottest new author is: LaQuarn Michaels. The proof is in the writing. With her debut novel, The Last One, Ms. Michaels is taking the world of literature by storm. Focusing on topics so true to life, readers quickly recognize her works as page turners (you know, books so intensely real you think it's written about you or one of your friends?).

Taking matters into her own hands, LaQuarn Michaels self published The Last One through Transcending Works, LLC; her personally owned and operated publishing company.

Being the first published author of Transcending Works, LaQuarn Michaels is setting the bar for rising writers to climb aboard while taking literary excellence to new heights.

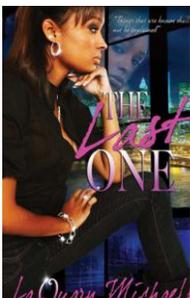

Keep your eyes on LaQuarn Michaels and be ready to add her books to your MUST READ list!

The last will be first: The Last One by LaQuarn Michaels

The Last One, LaQuarn Michaels' debut novel, delves into the life of Isis, a product of the fast life aiming to walk in her father's footsteps.

"Young Isis capitalizes off pain and pleasure. She's an opportunist looking to score high, and big. There's no limit to how far she would go to stay on top. Her daddy made the rules to the game, now that he's gone, Isis is demanding her respect. Enough is never enough!" - book excerpt
